

Prescription of whole genome sequencing for clinical use

Patient data:

Name:

Date of birth:

Genre:

Reasons for prescription:

This prescription is given to the patient after the genetic counseling has been done, having provided all the necessary information so that the patient (or his legal representative) understands the importance and sensitivity of the data resulting from the genetic sequencing, as well as the risks associated with the analysis of such information.

Physician data:

Name and surname(s):

License number:

.....

(Signature)

In....., on the.....

